Governor of West Virginia

As Governor of West Virginia, I am pleased to welcome all participants, supporters, and esteemed guests to the 72nd Annual Mid Southeastern Deaf Bowling Association and the 55th Annual Mid Southeastern Deaf Women Bowling Association tournament hosted by the Fairmont Association of the Deaf Sports.

The Fairmont Association of the Deaf and Sports has a rich history of organizing events that highlight sporting prowess and emphasize the importance of inclusivity and community support. I commend your dedication to creating an environment where everyone feels valued and welcomed.

As we gather for this tournament, we celebrate not only the rich history of these competitions but also the strength, resilience, and camaraderie of the deaf bowling community. This year's tournaments promise to showcase skill, sportsmanship, and the shared passion for the game that unites us all.

Throughout the decades, these tournaments have been a platform for friendly competition and a testament to the vibrant deaf community's ability to overcome challenges and thrive. We acknowledge and celebrate the individual and collective achievements that have shaped the legacy of the Mid Southeastern Deaf Bowling Association and the Mid Southeastern Deaf Women Bowling Association.

I extend my best wishes to our participants for a memorable and successful tournament in West Virginia. May the pins fall in your favor, and may the camaraderie and sportsmanship on display be a source of inspiration for us all.

Greetings Bowlers!

The City of Morgantown, with open arms and a friendly spirit, celebrates your passion for bowling, and we welcome you! Whether you're a seasoned pro or just stepping onto the lanes, this city embraces you as part of its vibrant community.

Welcome to bowlers from all the regional affiliate states. We are impressed that this is the 72nd Annual Mid-Southeastern Deaf Bowling Association and 55th Annual Mid-Southeastern Deaf Women Bowling Association tournament for the third time on May 30-June 2, 2024, at Suburban Lanes. Thanks to the Fairmont Association of Deaf Sports for organizing.

So, lace up those bowling shoes, adjust your wrist guard, and let the pins fly! Morgantown cheers you on, and we can't wait to see your strikes, spares, and unforgettable moments on the lanes.

Sincerely,

Jenny Selin
Mayor

Greeting from MSDBA Officers and Boards

Welcome to Morgantown, WV, home of the Mountaineers.

We would like to extend our appreciation and thanks to the Fairmont Association of the Deaf Sports for their dedication and commitment to the Mid Southeastern Deaf Bowling Association and Mid Southeastern Deaf Women Bowling Association after winning the bid last year at Rock Hill, South Carolina. We recognize FADS' committee for their hard work to fundraise less a year to make this tournament a success. We also want to thank FADS for their bid for third time since West Virginia is affiliated with MSDBA/MSDWBA (formerly Dixie Deaf Bowling Association and Women).

In appreciation of their commitment, they make this happen while there are other deaf events occurring soon, we are also grateful for your participation this weekend.

To plan ahead, we want your help with bidding next few years so we can continue this wonderful bowling tournament! We will announce future host cities at our general meeting.

Last but not least, we hope you form great memories here when you go home after this tournament weekend. Let the good times roll at the Mid Southeastern Deaf Bowling Association and plenty of exciting events at Holiday Inn & Suites.

Sincerely,
