GREETINGS:

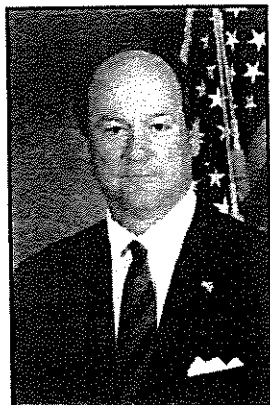

As Mayor of the City of Montgomery, it is a privilege to extend greetings to you from the City of Montgomery. We are proud to have you in Montgomery and it is my great pleasure to welcome each of you to the 56th Annual Men's and 39th Annual Women's Dixie Deaf Bowling Association, which is being hosted by Montgomery Thunderbolt Association of the Deaf, Inc.

Montgomery is truly a fascinating city with its big city amenities and small town flavor. We have great respect for church, family, country and friends. We have a symphony orchestra, an active chamber music society, two performing ballet companies, an outstanding art museum, the Rosa Parks Museum, and a wonderful zoo with landscaped enclosures, and an educational program. Further, Montgomery is extremely proud to have the Alabama Shakespeare Festival, one of the three best Shakespeare repertory companies and facilities in the world. I also hope you will have the opportunity to attend a Montgomery Biscuits baseball game in our new Riverfront Stadium, visit our Amphitheater and our new Riverwalk.

Montgomery is a place of history as well. Not only did the Civil War begin here with President Jefferson Davis' telegram to Charleston to begin bombarding, but the Civil Rights Movement also began here in the Dr. Martin Luther King Dexter Avenue Memorial Baptist Church.

For our visitors, I would also like to extend a personal invitation to visit some of our many historical sites and wonderful attractions and to get to know some of our citizens. We're a proud city with a rich heritage and warm friendly hospitality.

Enjoy yourselves while you're here and come back soon and often. You're always welcome in Montgomery!

Sincerely yours,
