Greetings!

On behalf of the citizens of Charlotte, I would like to welcome the attendees of the Dixie Deaf Bowling Association to Charlotte on May 24 – 27, 2012. We are happy that you have chosen Charlotte for this event and we trust that you will feel comfortable and at home in the Queen City.

Best wishes to the players and for an event filled with excitement and fun.

Interpreter Education

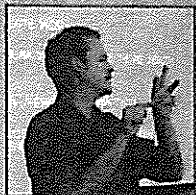

Discover the power of the unspoken word.

Almost 20 million people are hard of hearing in the United States. Of those 20 million, nearly five million are culturally Deaf. Discover a challenging and rewarding career: enroll in Central Piedmont Community College's Interpreter Education program and learn to become a licensed American Sign Language (ASL) interpreter and work in different settings such as medical, legal, education and community service.

Working closely with four-year colleges and universities, CPCC helps students obtain the necessary education, skills and credentials to sit for North Carolina licensing and RID certification.
