To All in Attendance
Dixie Deaf Bowling Association
40th Anniversary

Dear Friends:

As Mayor of Louisville, I take great pleasure in welcoming you to Louisville. We are very proud to serve as host city for the 40th Anniversary of the Dixie Deaf Bowling Association, and extend to you our finest in Kentucky hospitality.

While you are visiting, I encourage you to experience some of the many sites and pleasures that make Louisville a great American city. You can cruise the Ohio River for lunch or dinner or simply relax and enjoy the sunset from a floating restaurant. Our downtown is a blend of restored historic buildings and exciting new architecture. I invite you to experience the new IMAX (maximum image) theatre at the Museum of History and Science, located on historic West Main Street. Another action film can be found at the Kentucky Derby Museum at Churchill Downs, where you can watch your favorite Kentucky Derby race! And be sure and catch a ride on the vintage-style Toonerville II Trolley, located along famous Fourth Avenue.

Once again, a warm welcome to Louisville. We are glad you are here and hope you will visit us often.

Sincerely,

Jerry E. Abramson
Mayor
